

Lisa M. Kilbride

Staff Attorney

Lisa Kilbride focuses her practice on white collar criminal defense, complex civil litigation, government investigations and e-discovery issues.

Lisa works on matters involving allegations of health care fraud, corporate disputes, government contract disputes and environmental matters.

Prior to joining Zuckerman Spaeder, Lisa represented plaintiffs in the areas of medical malpractice, class action and personal injury law. For over seven years, Lisa has served as a volunteer lawyer for dependent children through Crossroads for Florida Kids, dedicating hundreds of pro bono hours of service to her young clients and their difficult and complex issues. She advocates for her young clients in dependency, delinquency, criminal and Baker Act proceedings, as well as to education officials, medical professionals and the Agency for Persons with Disabilities.
