

Nicholas M. DiCarlo

Associate

Nick DiCarlo is an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of Zuckerman Spaeder.

Before joining the firm, Nick was law clerk to The Honorable M. Margaret McKeown, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Before that, he was an associate at a large law firm in Washington, DC, where his practice spanned complex commercial litigations and appeals in state and federal courts, arbitrations, and criminal, congressional, and internal investigations.

During and prior to law school (from 2009 to 2014), Nick served in various legislative and communications capacities for U.S. Congresswoman-then U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin. In those roles, he advised the Senator on employment and health issues including the implementation of the Affordable Care Act, helped to prepare the Senator for committee hearings and mark-ups, drafted legislation, and met with constituents, businesses, and interest groups. From 2007 to 2009, Nick was a marketing strategy analyst with Digitas. Nick graduated from Georgetown University Law Center, magna cum laude and Order of the Coif, in 2015. He received his B.A. from Columbia University in 2007.
